

PRINCE GEORGE'S CHILD RESOURCE CENTER, INC

Training Calendar: February - May 2014 Register Online at www.childresource.org

Parent Café

Parent Cafés are happening all over Prince George's County. Parent Cafes are structured get-togethers which help to engage parents and other care providers in meaningful conversations about what matters most to families with young children, and how to strengthen families by building five protective factors. Participants share information and ideas that help them to take care of themselves, develop strong relationships with children and build strong families. If you are interested in hosting a café in your program, contact Jodi at 301.772.8420, extension 1010.

Providers Continue to EXCEL!

Ten child care programs published their EXCELS rating. Healthy Families Graduation

Healthy Families Prince George's, serving families throughout the County since 1998, celebrated thirteen graduating families in October! These dedicated moms and dads have been in the program since their children were born—and now they are off to kindergarten! Below see all the smiling faces of families and PGCRC staff together celebrating healthy, happy and thriving families.

Congratulations Rosa Bowers!

This year's Superstar Award went to Rosa Bowers, In-Home Interventionist for the Family Support Center Program. Rosa, you deserve it ... "for your dedication, resourcefulness and compassion as you help create healthy and nurturing environments for children."

Prince George's Child Resource Center Board of Directors

The Resource Center is grateful to have such a dedicated Board that works so hard to ensure we are a well-run organization working to achieve our mission with excellence: to help create healthy and nurturing environments for children by supporting their families and educating their caregivers.

Sadly, we say goodbye to some members this year — special thanks to Julie Hoffman, Neil J. Moore, Brenda Robinson and Marcus A. Smith for all your hard work on our behalf. We are thrilled to welcome five new members, bolded below:

SPECIAL CLASS ANNOUNCEMENTS 2014

HEALTHY BEGINNINGS: Every child deserves a healthy beginning in life! The adults who live with and care for infants and young children play an important role in laying the foundation and setting the stage for learning success. Gain knowledge, resources and strategies to support children in this crucial developmental period.

This series is designed for the caregivers/educators of infants to preschoolers and provides an overview of the Healthy Beginnings document and the foundation for understanding and using Healthy Beginnings as a child development tool. This 12 hour training offers activities to show providers how to use Healthy Beginnings to create and plan their programs for infants and preschoolers. Participants will receive a Healthy Beginnings book and receive Core of Knowledge hours in Community, Professionalism, Curriculum, Child Development and special Needs.

February 11, 13, 18 and 20—Tue. and Thur., 6:30—9:30 p.m.
Fee: $120 members, $140 non-members
Trainer: Laura Terrell

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS: This training will provide vital information, workbooks and materials. Each participant must attend the entire session and develop an individual emergency preparedness plan prior to receiving an MSDE training certificate.

3 HSN, 3 PRO (Intermediate)

March 8 or May 17.....9:00 a.m.—3:30 p.m.
Fee: $15 members and non-members
Trainer: Deanna Tobin, Chesapeake College

MARYLAND MODEL FOR SCHOOL READINESS 2013

Maryland Model for School Readiness (MMSR) has been streamlined to consist of five, six hour modules – 30 hours of training. The modules have been revised and updated to better reflect the child care providers, children and families of today's early care and education communities. Real-life and imagined scenarios help child care providers learn to analyze family situations, distinguish between observations and judgments, and apply new information to devise a plan for responsive child care.

You should take MMSR 2013 training if you:

- Have never taken MMSR training before or if you started but did not complete the 54 hour MMSR.
- Took the 54 hour MMSR and never implemented it in your classroom or program.
- Took MMSR more than 5 years ago.
- Are curious about the new training and would like to know more about the key MMSR 2013 concepts.
- Need 30 core of knowledge clock hours of high quality training that will assist you in the important work you do with children every day.

Dates:

Saturday, February 1, 9:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Tuesday, February 25 and Thursday, February 27, 6:30 – 9:30 p.m.

Saturday, March 15, 9:30 a.m.—4:00 p.m.
